

Honours Board

WORLD INDOOR BOWLS COUNCIL SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
1978/79	Coatbridge (Scotland)		David Bryant (ENG)
1979/80	Coatbridge (Scotland)		David Bryant (ENG)
1980/81	Coatbridge (Scotland)		David Bryant (ENG)
1981/82	Coatbridge (Scotland)		John Watson (SCO)
1982/83	Coatbridge (Scotland)		Bob Sutherland (SCO)
1983/84	Coatbridge (Scotland)		Jim Baker (IRE)
1984/85	Coatbridge (Scotland)		Terry Sullivan (WAL)
1985/86	Coatbridge (Scotland)		Tony Allcock (ENG)
1986/87	Coatbridge (Scotland)		Tony Allcock (ENG)
1987/88	London (England)		Hugh Duff (SCO)
1988/89	Preston (England)		Richard Corsie (SCO)

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

Honours Board

WORLD INDOOR BOWLS COUNCIL SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
1989/90	Preston (England)		John Price (WAL)
1990/91	Preston (England)		Richard Corsie (SCO)
1991/92	Preston (England)		Ian Schuback (AUS)
1992/93	Preston (England)		Richard Corsie (SCO)
1993/94	Preston (England)		Andy Thomson (ENG)
1994/95	Preston (England)		Andy Thomson (ENG)
1995/96	Preston (England)		David Gourlay (SCO)
1996/97	Preston (England)		Hugh Duff (SCO)
1997/98	Preston (England)		Paul Foster (SCO)
1998/99	Hopton on Sea (England)		Alex Marshall (SCO)
1999/2000		Marlene Castle (NZL)	Graeme Archer (SCO)

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

Honours Board

WORLD INDOOR BOWLS COUNCIL SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
2000/01		Betty Brown (SCO)	Darren Burnett (SCO)	Alison Merrien & Adrian Welch (GGY)
2001/02		Carol Ashby (ENG)	David Miller (ENG)	Julie Forrest & Mark Johnston (SCO)
2002/03		Carol Ashby (ENG)	Stevie Moran (IRE)	Julie Forrest & Mark Johnston (SCO)
2003/04		Julie Forrest (SCO)	Mark O'Riorden (ENG)	Alison Merrien & Neal Mollet (GGY)
2004/05		Margaret Letham (SCO)	Jeff Wells (ENG)	Michelle Roberts & Mark Walton (ENG)
2005/06		Margaret Letham (SCO)	Nicky Donaldson (GGY)	Sue Estoby & Mark Walton (ENG)
2006/07		Claire Johnston (SCO)	Mervyn King (ENG)	Claire Johnston & Iain McLean (SCO)
2007/08	Swansea (Wales)	Sarah Seymour (ENG)	Colin Walker (SCO)	Suzanne King & Mervyn King (ENG)
2008/09	Swansea (Wales)	Alison Merrien (GGY)	Neil Speirs (SCO)	Margaret Letham & Neil Speirs (SCO)
2009/10	Auchinleck (Scotland)	Julie Forrest (SCO)	Graham Smith (ENG)	Margaret Letham & Stewart Anderson (SCO)
2010/11	Islwyn (Wales)	Betty Morgan (WAL)	Graham Smith (ENG)	Betty Morgan & Carl Wood (WAL)

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

Honours Board

WORLD INDOOR BOWLS COUNCIL SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
2011/12	Islwyn (Wales)	Laura Thomas (WAL)	Steve Allen (SCO)	Kerry Packwood & Damian Doubler (WAL)
2012/13	St Saviour (Jersey)	Julie Forrest (SCO)	Steve Allen (SCO)	Julie Forrest & Jonathan Ross (SCO)
2013/14	St Saviour (Jersey)	Julie Forrest (SCO)	Damian Doubler (WAL)	Lynn Stein & Iain McLean (SCO)
2014/15	St Saviour (Jersey)	Alison Merrien MBE (GGY)	Scott Baxter (JER)	Chloe Greechan & Tommy Greechan (JER)
2015/16	St Saviour (JER)	Katherine Rednall (ENG)	Andrew Kyle (IRE)	Chloe Greechan & Malcolm De Sousa (JER)
2016/17	Swansea (Wales)	Chloe Watson (IRE)	Jarred Breen (WAL)	Annalisa Dunham & Martin Spencer (ENG)
2017/18	Hartlepool (England)	Alison Merrien MBE (GGY)	Stewart Anderson (SCO)	Emma McIntyre & Stewart Anderson (SCO)
2018/19	Merthyr Tydfil (Wales)	Alison Merrien MBE (GGY)	Stewart Anderson (SCO)	Ruby Hill & Martin Puckett (ENG)

From 2022 onwards World Bowls and IIBC held joint championships

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

Honours Board

WORLD BOWLS/INTERNATIONAL INDOOR BOWLS COUNCIL SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
2021/22	Bristol (England)	Julie Forrest (SCO)	Mike Stepney (SCO)	Julie Forrest & Mike Stepney (SCO)
2022/23	Warilla (Australia)	Julie Forrest (SCO)	Aaron Sheriff (AUS)	Kelsey Cottrell & Aaron Sheriff (AUS)
2023/24	Vale (Guernsey)	Farah Abdullah (MAS)	Jason Greenslade (GGY)	Samantha Atkinson & Ray Pearse (AUS)

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

Honours Board

WORLD BOWLS JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
2005	Warilla (Australia)	Lynsey Armitage (AUS)	Safuan Said (MAS)
2006	Warilla (Australia)	Lynsey Armitage (AUS)	Wayne Hogg (SCO)
2007	Warilla (Australia)	Melanie Macauley (AUS)	Barry Kane (IRE)
2008	Warilla (Australia)	Melanie Macauley (AUS)	Aron Sherriff (AUS)
2009	Warilla (Australia)	Genevieve Baildon (NZL)	Craig England (SCO)
2010	Warilla (Australia)	Samantha Shannahan (AUS)	Andrew Kelly (NZL)
2011	Warilla (Australia)	Clare McCaul (NZL)	Ben Twist (AUS)
2014	Gold Coast (Australia)	Chloe Stewart (AUS)	Dylan Fisher (AUS)	Auni Kamus & Karius Jabal (MAS)
2015	Gold Coast (Australia)	Kristina Krstic (AUS)	Ryan Burnett (SCO)	Kristina Krstic & Ben Twist (AUS)
2016	Gold Coast (Australia)	Ellen Ryan (AUS)	Aaron Wilson (AUS)	Ellen Ryan & Aaron Teys (AUS)
2017	Gold Coast (Australia)	Pricilla Westlake (CAN)	Daniel Salmon (WAL)	Connie Rixon (MLT & Cory Wedlock (AUS)
2018	Gold Coast (Australia)	Kristina Krstic (AUS)	Aaron Teys (AUS)	Ellen Ryan & Aaron Teys (AUS)

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

Honours Board

WORLD INDOOR BOWLS COUNCIL JUNIOR INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
1998	Llanelli IBC (Wales)	Event not held	Darren Burnett (SCO)
1999	Llanelli IBC (Wales)	Karen Murphy (AUS)	Darren Burnett (SCO)
2000	Jersey IBC (Jersey)	Stacey Collier (AUS)	Darren Burnett (SCO)
2001	Cardiff IBC (Wales)	Caroline Brown (SCO)	Darren Burnett (SCO)
2002	Belfast IBC (Ireland)	Lindsay Greechan (IRE)	Mark Casey (AUS)
2003	Jersey IBC (Jersey)	Claire Spreadbury (ENG)	Simon Jones (ENG)
2004	Jersey IBC (Jersey)	Amy Monkhouse (ENG)	Jamie Hill (NZL)	Catherine Beattie (IRE) & Wayne Hogg (SCO)
2005	Jersey IBC (Jersey)	Gemma Broadhurst (ENG)	Wayne Hogg (SCO)	Catherine McMillan (IRE) & Wayne Hogg (SCO)
2006	Guernsey IBC (Guernsey)	Kerry Packwood (WAL)	Jamie Chestney (ENG)	Lucy Beere (GGY) & David Axon (WAL)
2007	Seelong IBC (Malaysia)	Nur Fidrah Noh (MAS)	Barry Kane (IRE)	Zuraini Khalid (MAS) & Sam Tolchard (ENG)
2008	Auchinleck IBC (Scotland)	Jamie-Lea Winch (ENG)	Stewart Anderson (SCO)	Lisa Barrett (SCO) & Craig Dorey (GGY)
2009	Victory IBC (England)	Kerry Packwood (WAL)	Stewart Anderson (SCO)	Clíodhna Boyce (IRE) & Dan De La Mere (GGY)
2010	Gedling IBC (England)	Amy Stanton (ENG)	Stewart Allen (SCO)	Michelle Cooper (SCO) & Owain Dando (WAL)
2011	Llanelli IBC (Wales)	Amy Stanton (ENG)	Shaun Jones (ENG)	Sophie Rabey (GGY) & Calum Logan (SCO)

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

Honours Board

WORLD INDOOR BOWLS COUNCIL JUNIOR INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
2012	Fraserburg IBC (Scotland)	Amy Stanton (ENG)	Perry Martin (ENG)	Lauren Batiste (GGY) & Perry Martin (ENG)
2013	Glasgow IBC (Scotland)	Carrie McLean (SCO)	Martin Williamson (SCO)	Sophie Rabey (GGY) & Calum Logan (SCO)
2014	Ffrith IBC (Wales)	Chloe Watson (IRE)	Jamie Walker (ENG)	Victoria Bilson (ENG) & Liam Bouse (WAL)
2015	Coatbridge IBC (Scotland)	Amy Williams (WAL)	Ryan Atkins (ENG)	Carrie McLean (SCO) & Ryan Atkins (ENG)
2016	Glasgow IBC (Scotland)	Katherine Rednall (ENG)	Scott Baxter (JER)	Rebecca Houston (SCO) Erik Galipeau (CAN) & Dominic McVittie (ENG)
2017	Newport IBC (Wales)	Amy Williams (WAL)	Edward Elmore (ENG)	Emma Boyd (CAN) Daniel Salmon (WAL) & Mark O'Hagan (SCO)
2018	Glasgow IBC	Nicole Rogers (ENG)	Robert Kirkwood (IRE)	Yau Tze Fung & Leung Seen Wah (HKC)

From 2019 onwards World Bowls and IIBC held joint championships

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

Honours Board

INTERNATIONAL INDOOR BOWLS COUNCIL/WORLD BOWLS JUNIOR INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
YEAR	VENUE	WOMENS CHAMPION	MENS CHAMPION	MIXED PAIRS CHAMPIONS
2019	West Denton IBC (England)	Paris Baker (TGA)	Jason Banks (SCO)	Zoe Minish & Adam McKeown (IRE)
2022	County Antrim IBC (Ireland)	Brianna Smith (AUS)	Harry Goodwin (ENG)	Ruby Hill & Harry Goodwin (IRE)
2023	East Kilbride IBC (Scotland)	Shauna O'Neill (IRE)	Nathan Black (AUS)	Shauna O'Neill & Ryan McElroy (IRE)
2024	Hong Kong (China)

The Senior Championships were organised by the World Indoor Bowls Council from 1979 to 1999, when the World Bowls Tour also started to hold an indoor world championships. The WIBC title continued to host an indoor world championships until 2022 when the championships became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.

The Junior World Championships were previously named the World Junior Cup in 2005-2011. It was not played in 2012-2013. The World Junior Championship was contested outdoor annually in 2014, 2015 & 2016 and was then re-titled World Youth Championships for 2017 & 2018. An annual World Junior/Youth Championships was then held outdoor consisting of men's and women's singles and mixed pairs disciplines for players between the ages of 18 and 25. In 2022 the junior world championships also became a joint venture between World Bowls and IIBC.